Western Region News

March 21st saw the opening round of the 2010 Western Region Series in Warrnambool. The track had a couple of changes from last season, but was well prepared and all riders were ready for a great day of racing. Beau Taylor rode very well all day and finished the round with two firsts and a third placing. Toby Marshall has moved up to the 65cc class this year and was anxious to get amongst it. He also had a great day finishing first in all three races. Solly Marshall is making his debut in the Western Region Series and was looking forward to being out on the track rather than just a spectator. Solly finished the day with two fourth placings and a fifth. Kyb and Yannik are always front runners in their classes and this round was no different. They both gave the competition something to chase and finished with impressive results. Round 2 will be held in Ballarat on Sunday April 11. Good luck

Merv Williams and his son Jacob came to our first ride for the season. Merv was kind enough to offer some training tips to the juniors. The club is very grateful for the time that Merv spends with our club and we look forward to more training days in 2010.
